Jeremy Duvall carries all facets of the arts and entertainment industry with him as a teacher, choreographer, and dancer. He graduated from Oklahoma City University's School of American Dance and Entertainment. His theatre credits include Frozen - Live at the Hyperion (Sven), Carrie the musical (Los Angeles Theatre-Associate Choreographer), Spamalot (Hollywood Bowl), Billy Elliot (McCoy/Rigby), The Jungle Book (Goodman Theatre/Huntington Theatre-Dance Captain), Fiddler on the Roof (Paramount Theatre-Dance Captain), Wicked (Chicago and 2nd national tour-Dance Captain/Swing), and numerous shows with Music Theatre of Wichita which include 42nd Street, Children of Eden, The Unsinkable Molly Brown (Michael Tobin), The Music Man (Tommy Djilus), Evita, Pajama Game (Dance Captain), and Singin' in the Rain (Dance Captain) to name a few. Other performance credits include Radio City Christmas Spectacular, Tokyo Disney Sea, NBC's Bunheads, and a music video by Arcade Fire, starring Emma Stone. His teaching and choreography has taken him around the world; favorite places being Brazil, Italy, France, Canada, and Japan. Jeremy was an Adjunct Professor of Dance at Pace University, and, also a Show Supervisor at RWS Entertainment Group in NYC, providing professional direction and maintenance choreographer duties for Step One Dance Company that travels on the Holland America Cruise lines. Jeremy is a Co-Founder of an In-Studio Dance Convention called INDUSTRY XPERIENCE. "Training for the neXt generation!" He is currently back at OCU as an Artist in Residence and Professor of Jazz Dance, where he teaches all levels of jazz, and also teaches tap, theatre dance, and partnering. Jeremy is thrilled with the opportunity to share the knowledge he received and gained within the industry with these wonderful Dancers.
